

LYRIC COLORATURA SOPRANO

Fiona Cooper Smyth

is an extremely versatile, experienced classical singer having performed extensively in engagements that range from leading roles in opera, concerts, opening ceremonies, weddings and major corporate events.

With her beautiful vocal talent and commanding stage presence, Fiona performs a wide range of styles from opera and oratorio to musical theatre, jazz and cross-over songs.

Fiona has performed in over 20 productions with West Australian Opera, and has a First Class BA (hons) in Music, Drama & Literature, a Masters in Public Relations and a Postgraduate Diploma of Vocal Studies (London). Based in Perth, Fiona founded the opera-cabaret group, Cabaret Cadenza, to provide corporate entertainment and musical concerts and events.

Fiona entertains her audience with ease whether she is floating through the cadenza's of Verdi's Sempre Libera during a concert or gala dinner; Ave Maria during a wedding, or singing popular songs such as You Raise Me Up with Cabaret Cadenza on Channel 7's Telethon.

Roles include Queen of the Night, Violetta, Adele, Olympia, Guilietta and Susanna. Venues include The Royal Albert Hall, The Barbican, His Majesty's Theatre, and Perth Concert Hall.

PRESS QUOTES:

"The undoubted star of the show was Fiona Cooper who sang the part of Susanna"

Bucks Free Press

"An exciting new voice and remarkable stage presence."

Artistic Connections, UK

"The best singing of the evening came from Fiona Cooper as Adele. She sang with clear conviction, accurate pitch and good firm coloratura."
